

The University of Arizona

▲ ▲ ▲

LATIN AMERICAN PROGRAM: A LEARNING RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

Global Initiatives

Latin American Program: A Learning Research Experience

Program Overview | The Latin American Program (LAP) is an intensive Learning Research Experience at the University of Arizona where undergraduate students spend ten (10) weeks learning research activities, attending workshops, fieldtrips and a graduate school symposium. This program offers academic, professional and cultural experiences for undergraduate students interested on science, technology, social sciences and engineering to explore the life of a graduate student and a scientific professional.

- Location: Tucson, Arizona, USA
- Terms Available: Fall (Sept-Dec) | Spring (Jan-March) | Summer (June, Aug)
- Language of Instruction: English
- Housing: Summer on campus | Fall, Spring off campus
- Requirements: Junior or Senior | GPA 3.0 | J1 internship visa requirements (English Proficiency) | English transcripts | CV | Letter of recommendation | Statement of Purpose | Financial Guarantee | Mentor List
- Application Deadline: Fall: June 15 | Spring: Sept 16 | Summer: March 18
- Credit Type: Equivalent to seminars, professional practice or courses. LAP works with each home institution to determine the academic equivalence and requirements.
- Contact: Dr. Nadia Alvarez Mexia, Director
nalvarez@email.arizona.edu
- Dr. (c) Adrián Arroyo, Research Asst.
arroyopa@catworks.arizona.edu

global.arizona.edu/lapi | 520-626-1132